

Weenink Winks, a trail of “prayer points” throughout Camp Henry, was dedicated in memory of Allan J. Weenink on August 20, 2006. Virginia Weenink and her family selected these quotes and locations to reflect Al’s unique view on what is important in life.

Whether as a summer camp director or working in the mission field; as an author or adjunct professor; a pulpiteer with a pastoral heart or a confidante, Al sought to be the humble instrument of God as a pastor, preacher, parent, colleague, mentor and mate. Al leaves not only a legacy of love, but an inheritance of values...defining the manner, means and goal of what our lives should be.

WEENINK WINKS

every day is a gift

Weenink Winks

pause, reflect, meditate, be inspired

At Camp we experience the love of God, God's love in Christ, and the love in the Campers' Creed: God first, others second, and self last.

location #1: Idema Theatre

Live courageously in the cause of the right; live with character in the midst of adversity; live with commitment in the midst of nonchalance; and live with conviction in uncertain times.

location #2: Boys Village Campfire Circle

Are you surprised by beauty, by a flower, a bird, an anthem, a cloud, a brook, a star, a sunrise, or a sunset? I hope so.

location #3: Dining Hall at the Waterfront

Like the rhythmic alternation in the natural world - days of unutterable joy are sometimes succeeded by seasons of overwhelming concerns.

location #4: Gordon Chapel Trail

It's the set of the soul that decides the goal and not the calm or the strife.

location #5: Gordon Chapel Trail

None of us knows what is going to happen tomorrow, or even later today, for that matter. "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring." Proverbs 27

location #6: Wetlands Trail Entrance

Every day offers each of us some opportunity to affect the multitudes of those around us.

location #7: Willow Hummocks - Wetland Trail

He who finds the handful of quietness, has found himself, and God. Is there any greater treasure or abiding tranquility?

location #8: Mosquito Point - Wetlands Trail

Patience is the creative waiting, the sound of assurance that "this too shall pass" and on the other side of the mist the sun still shines and God still cares.

location #9: Classroom Deck - Wetlands Trail

By that strange, holy, unique essence of what we call our selfhood, we can cause our influence to be felt, directly or indirectly, knowingly, or unknowingly.

location #10: Earth berm - Wetlands Trail

Sometimes God seems to lay on us more than our faith can endure. Nevertheless, by enduring we can shout the affirmation of the faithful, "God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform."

location #11: Observation Deck - Wetlands Trail

"In Love's service, only the wounded can serve." Because of our woundedness we can contribute that extra measure of life's meaning that shares intimately the woundedness of another.

location #12: Old Frontier Meadow

"Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." Hebrews 11:1

location #13: Ancient Fire Circle

We must have a soul set that sees opportunity within difficulty and thus an attitude of mind that will not be intimidated.

location #14: Climbing Tower

Much of what is significant in life has come to us because of the unexpected, and is born out of the inconvenient.

location #15: Labyrinth

Patience is the homework of life, preparation for every experience. "Let us run with patience the race that is set before us." Hebrews 12:1

location #16: Gordon Road Trail

We are marked people. As you have been marked, be aware that you, too, have the capacity to leave a mark, an imprint, an influence for good and for God.

location #17: A-Field Trail

Every day is a gift of the grace of God, a bounty from His amazing benevolence, a treasure from His stupendous storehouse.

location #18: between The Lakes Lodges

In vital personal religion every person is commissioned with a purpose and a destiny -called to do something, big or little, for God's sake and humanity's.

location #19: Girls Village Campfire Circle
